SWITCHMAN HURT BY TRAIN
INJURIES ARE NOT SERIOUS Tox" Dimmit, a switchman in the yards of the El Paso & Southwestern railroad, who was injured Saturday night in an accident in the yards, will be out in a day or so. According to Dr. W. L. Brown, who attended him, Dimmitt is from San Antonio, where he has relatives. A wire of inquiry was received today from his sister, Mrs. Nellie Dimmitt Devaney, of that city, and she was assured that his condition was not serious.

Jimmitt was knocked from a moving car by the freight platform on the sastern end of the Scuthwestern freight depot, on Franklin street. The injured switchman had only been employed by the system for a few days.
Usfamiliarity with the yards, especially at night, is believed to be responsible for the accident.

WASHOUTS ON SANTA FE
CAUSE TRAINS DELAY
Santa Fe train No. 215 was delayed two hours and 45 minutes Sunday evening, as a result of z slight washout near Sen Marcial, N. M.
The break was repaired and train No.
216 bound for Albuquerque left the union spation on time. Small washouts at Carrisono, N. M., in the yards of the E. P. & S. W. system, necessitated a slight delay in the arrival of No. 2 in El Paso Sunday afternoon.

LAYING CEMENT FLOORING.
A combination cement flooring is now being laid in the office of the superintendent of the G. H. at the union depot. It is expected that the work will be completed within a few days.
